

Help design a new website for people with learning disabilities

What are the meetings about?

Devon County Council want to create an accessible website for people with learning disability in Devon.

The website will be easy to use and have information in Easy Read.

The idea for a new website was from the Devon Learning Disability Partnership Board. This Board aims to help people have the same opportunities as everyone else.

We will be having 6 meetings to talk about what information should be on the website and how it should look.

Who can come along?

People with a learning disability who wants to help design the new accessible website.

When is the first meeting?
